VOLUNTEERING

Silverton SPCA | Pretoria, South Africa April 2019

During my time volunteering at Silverton SPCA, I dedicated myself to improving the well-being of the animals and supporting the shelter's operations. My responsibilities included packing and cleaning the animals' sleeping areas, ensuring they had a clean and comfortable environment. This experience allowed me to acquire and enhance valuable skills:

Communication Skills: I regularly interacted with shelter staff, fellow volunteers, and visitors, which helped me develop strong verbal and written communication abilities.

Leadership Skills: I often took the initiative in organizing tasks and coordinating with other volunteers to ensure that all duties were completed efficiently. This role required me to manage time effectively and lead by example, fostering a cooperative and productive atmosphere.

INTERESTS

- Capture the Flag Competitions: Participating in CTF challenges to acquire skills and stay competitive.
- Cybersecurity Enthusiast: Keeping up to date with the latest trends and developments in cybersecurity.
- Fitness and Outdoor Activities: Maintaining a balanced lifestyle through activities such as hiking and team sports, which can also reflect discipline and teamwork.
